Two more Bengal sweets likely to get Geographical Indication tag soon

Kolkata. Amid the Covid-19 pandemic, there is some good news for the people of West Bengal with a sweet tooth. Four years after the state government applied for Geographical Indication (GI) status of Sarbhaja and Sarpuria, the wait might end soon when the two sweets found in Krishnanagar in Nadia district will get the GI tag like rosogolla.

Rosogolla and GI Status

West Bengal won the battle over the GI tag for rosogolla in 2017. However, the neighbouring state of Odisha also applied for the GI tag in 2018 after a rectification petition was filed by Ramesh Chandra Sahoo, Chairman of Regional Development Trust in Odisha, seeking cancellation of West Bengal's GI status for rosogolla. After Odisha failed to provide substantial evidence within the stipulated time period, the GI registry dismissed the state's cancellation petition. After months of a bitter sweet battle, Bengalis were proud to see their favourite sweet getting the GI tag. Now, it is likely that Sarbhaja and Sarpuria will soon get GI status.

What are Sarbhaja and Sarpuria?

Sarbhaja is a soft sweet which is sandwiched between the malai or milk skin. It is fried in ghee before being dipped in sugar syrup and garnished with chopped almonds and pistachios. The sweet is not found in many of Kolkata's shops but mostly ordered in bulk during occasions like Jagadhatri Puja, Loknath Baba Puja, Kali Puja and Janmashtami. Sarpuria is similar to Sarbhaja with the only difference that the sweet is baked and not fried. The main ingredients are kheer, chenna and malai. Sarpuria is popular and ordered in bulk during various festivals. Both the Sarbhaja and Sarpuria are sold at Rs 25 per piece in the shops of Kolkata, while in Krishnanagar, the sweets are easily available in greater quantities and slightly cheaper.

TDP accuses YSRCP govt of failing to attract investment, creating jobs in Andhra Pradesh

Hyderabad. Amid reports of battery manufacturing company 'Amara Raja Batteries' moving out of Andhra Pradesh, the opposition Telugu Desam Party (TDP) on Tuesday hit out at the YSR Congress Party (YSRCP) government, alleging that it failed to attract investment in the state.

Amara Raja, the country's second-largest automotive battery manufacturer, is located in Chittoor. The company was reportedly served notices by the state pollution control board and is considering moving its unit to neighbouring Tamil Nadu. It also held discussions with Tamil Nadu Chief Minister MK Stalin. However, no official statement was released by Amara Raja on its plan. TDP General Secretary and MLC Nara Lokesh demanded that the YS Jagan Mohan Reddy government should explain why the YSRCP government failed to attract investment, 'despite having dozens of advisors with huge payments at the expense of the public treasury'. He criticised the YSRCP government's policies and claimed that even the chief minister's advisors, who were running their own companies, are 'not willing to set up any company of their own in the state for the reasons best known to themselves'. Nara Lokesh termed the development as 'alarming' and said that since new companies were not coming to the state, existing firms were leaving Andhra Pradesh, which has led to a loss of employment opportunities in the state. "They were picking up the slogan 'Bye Bye Jagan'," he added. The TDP leader further said that he held Jagan Mohan Reddy and his advisors accountable for not creating job opportunities and failing to attract investment in Andhra Pradesh to boost the state's economy.

Will launch peaceful struggle for Article 370 if SC doesn't restore it, says Apni Party chief

"We have full confidence that Supreme Court will restore it [Article 370] and if it does not do it, we will fight the way we did for land rights," he said, referring to the government allowing only UT's domiciles to own land in Jammu and Kashmir. "

Jammu. JAMMU AND Kashmir Apni Party chief Altaf Bukhari on Tuesday said they will launch a peaceful struggle for restoration of Article 370 of the Constitution if Supreme Court did not restore it.

"We have full confidence that Supreme Court will restore it [Article 370] and if it does not do it, we will fight the way we did for land rights," he said, referring to the government allowing only UT's domiciles to own land in Jammu and Kashmir. "We will in a peaceful manner convince the Prime Minister that it is in the interest of our people," he said. He also demanded the government resume the 149-year old Darbar Move practice. Pointing out that the biannual move of the civil secretariat between Jammu and Srinagar brings people of the two regions closer to each other, he asserted that the people of Kashmir cannot be separated from the people of Jammu. Various deputations on Tuesday called on the Apni Party president at the party office in Gandhi Nagar and apprised him of issues being confronted by them. Their main concern was about stopping the Darbar Move practice, commercialisation of historic Mubarak Mandi Palace, issues faced by the business community among others. Pointing out that Darbar Move boosts economic activity in Jammu for six months and vice versa, Bukhari said the traders believe that if the practice resumes, they will be able to overcome the financial losses they suffered following the August 2019 developments. Expressing displeasure over an attempt to convert Mubarak Mandi Palace into a hotel, he said that the deputations which met him expressed anger over the government's decision. "It is unfortunate that the decision to convert our heritage site into a hotel is taken by those who do not know about our history and historical importance of the Mubarak Mandi Palace," he said, and sought the intervention of the Lt Governor into the matter. Bukhari's demands came a day after he threatened that his party members in theDDCs will resign as they were allegedly not being allowed to deliver by the UT administration.
